HALLOWEEN CELEBRATION

The Steve Rock Combo, a 4-piece band, will play for a teen-age dance to be held at the parish hall of the Mattapoisett Congregational Church Halloween night, following a parade in the center of town. A party for all younger children in the town will be held at the Center School following the parade. The affair is being sponsored by the Mattapoisett Police Department.

The parade will start at 6:30 P.M. from the PX on Church, proceed to Main to Water to North to Church Streets to the Center School.

Prizes of bicycles will be presented to the children dressed in the best costumes as judged by Mattapoisett Selectmen.

A band, furnished by the Florence Eastman Post #280, American Legion, will lead the parade.

APPOINTED TO PARK COMMITTEE

Charles Morgan was appointed to fill out the unexpired term of the late Robert Johansen as a member of the Veterans of Memorial Park Committee.

COUPLES CLUB HOLDS SOCIAL

The St. Anthony's Couples Club of Mattapoisett held their October social Saturday evening at the Tobey Lane Youth Center.

The club members enjoyed an evening of dancing and games amid the Halloween decorations.

tapoisett Congregational Couples Club was read to the members, inviting them to their "Hillbilly Night" on Saturday, November 19th. Anyone interested in attending the "Hillbilly Night" please contact Mrs. James Moran on Rock Street by November 13th, 758-2018.

The October Social Committee comprised Mr. and Mrs. David Haley, chairman; Mr. and Mrs. Albert Morgado, Mr. and Mrs. John O'Leary and Mr. and Mrs. Louis Pepin.

SUCCESSFUL AUCTION HELD

The auction last Saturday in Mattapoisett was a huge success. The Carriage House Fund of the Mattapoisett Historical Society took a great leap forward, propelled by Mrs. Florence Cornell, auctioneer, and a sum well over $1,000. was cleared, according to Mrs. David Todd, the Society's president.

She wishes to thank all who participated, on both sides of the sales ledger, donors, buyers and runners. Activity in many quarters and community-wide cooperation preceded the event, but on the day itself, the runners, those who contacted bidders, conveyed items, and collected cash with speed of Jack Rabbits (though some were Jills) deserve special mention for sheer agility and mileage.

They were, in the morning, Alan Apperson, Mark Gould, George Liberty, Jim Macomber, Mike O'Brien, Steve Sparks and Steve Valla-doa. Afternoon runners were Miss Frances Pernas, Mrs. Eunice H. Sawyer, Peter Briggs and George L. Henshaw. A prime figure in constant action under a large shade hat that billowed as she navigated the barn entrance and uneven ground was Mrs. Earl Masterson, in a trim blue tailored dress, matching the occasional blue sky that showed. Serving in many capacities were Mr. and Mrs. Clifford I. Tripp, Jr. Mrs. Tripp and Mrs. Masterson both also cashiered.

The crowd of purchasers, varying from about 100 to 150, some of them "repeaters" after a home lunch, others patrons of John and Elsie Souza's delicious lunch catering from the Village Delicatessen, represented many local areas. The auctioneer, Mrs. Cornell, neither paused for lunch or any substantial refreshment, in her profitable and continous performance, quite a tour de force.

If anyone does not know the location of the Mattapoisett Historical Society Museum, it is housed attractively in a white frame building on the corner of Church and Baptist Streets, near the waterfront. The Carriage Shed addition is to accommodate large displays, such as the Stage Coach, already in the possession of the Society, as well as boat building equipment, a distinguished collection of early farm equipment, and a kitchen with pump and wooden sink of early period in Mattapoisett. Mr. Charles Mendell, past president of the Society and tireless worker for the Carriage House Fund, was informed by Mrs. Todd of the auction's success, when she phoned him at his winter residence at Rollins College, Florida where he heads the English Department.

The committee for the auction comprised Mrs. Marland I. Bryant and Mrs. Frances C. Rowland, co-chairmen; Mrs. Earl Masterson, Miss Lydia LeBaron Walker and Mrs. George Heath who appeared on T.V. for the event. They are grateful to have served under the happy and able leadership of Mrs. Todd, and offer gratitude also to the David Todd Jr.s for the excellent accommodations of their garage for the occasion. JUNIOR GRANGE MEETING

Mattapoisett Junior Grange held its bi-monthly meeting last Friday night with the worthy master, Mark Harris, presiding.

Reports were given by Joseph Alves, agriculture; Julie Harris, sunshine; Gail Bauer, Home and Community Service; and several members on conservation.

In reply to a request in the Standard Times from the Morgan Memorial Goodwill Industries, Gail urged all the girls to bring in any old dolls, regardless of condition, with or without clothes, even legs, arms or heads that can be used for her project. These items will be packed and deposited in one of the nearest Goodwill Collection Boxes. These dolls will be repaired by the handicapped at Morgan Memorial. Any girl in Mattapoisett who might have any old dolls, etc., Gail would appreciate having them for her project. They may be given to Gail or leave them with the matron, Mrs. Mildred LeBaron.

New members who have joined the Junior Grange are Michael Mulvihill, Ray Silveria, Lauren Croft, Joseph, Christine, Jane and Ann Carson, George Mock, Diana and Paula Whitaker and Rubietta Letournere of Middleboro.

Under new business it was voted to omit the October 28th meeting as Mrs. LeBaron may be at the State Grange Session in Springfield. It was also voted to send the worthy master, Mark Harris, to Junior Day October 28th, at the State Session.

There was a request from Mrs. Hedges, lecturer of Rochester Grange, for the Juniors to help her with a program and it was so voted. Shawn Jefferson received the lecturer's march prize.

Mrs. C. Joseph Nowak presided at the short meeting which opened with an invocation, salute to the Flag and the singing of America the Beautiful. Mrs. Edward Reinhart accompanied on the piano.

Mrs. F. J. H. Dawson read a letter from the State Federation regarding aid to the veterans at Brockton Veterans' Hospital - and also reminded members that the annual Christmas donations for indigent veterans there is being solicited by the club. She hoped for 100% participation by the Club in this worthy cause.

Mrs. Nowak reminded members that the date of the next meeting has been changed to Wednesday, November 9th, at Mrs. William Saltonstall's home, when she will speak on Peace Corps Wife in Nigeria. Mrs. Nowak also hoped that the club membership would attend the program Friday, November 18th, at Old Rochester Regional High School entitled "Medicine, Education, Religion - Why is Their Interdependence Necessary for Individual and Community Well-Being?" with speakers Dr. Francis D. Moore, Surgeon in Chief, Peter Bent Brigham Hospital; Mrs. Livingston Hall, head of Simon's Rock School; and the Rev. Frederick Buechner, chaplain Phillips Exeter Academy. Mr. William Saltonstall will be chairman of the program.

Delicious refreshments were served by a committee headed by Mrs. Newell T. Eames - assisted by Mrs. Raymond H. Baxter, Mrs. Bernard S. Rose, Mrs. Edward A. Reinhart, Mrs. Ralph Winters and Mrs. Edward C. Brainard, 2nd. Pouring were Mrs. Roswell Dunham and Miss Edith Allanach.

ROCHESTER JUNIOR FIRE MARSHALS
Rochester group of Junior Fire Marshals inspect fire equipment after scoring 99% in the fire prevention contest.

5 at each school were given lists to be checked off during the week at home on fire prevention within the home. The lists were signed by a parent and returned to school on Thursday.

On Friday at assemblies held in the three schools flags were presented to the room in each school with the highest percentage of returned lists, and a certificate to the school with the highest percentage. All pupils returning the lists were presented with a fire marshal's badge and hat.

Presentation of awards was made at each school by Mr. Dunn. Rochester Memorial School received the certificate for the highest percentage, a total of 99% returned lists. Winners of flags at each school were: grade 3, Mrs. Jones, Rochester, 96%; Mrs. Haley, Center School, grade 3, 96%; grade 4, Mrs. Worthen, Rochester, 100%; Mr. Smith's grade 4, Ham-

PTC MEETING HELD

The 1966-67 meeting of the Mattapoisett Parent-Teachers Club, held last Thursday evening in the Old Hammondtown School cafeteria, had a successful turn-out of 120 parents and teachers. The main events of the evening were a potluck supper and business meeting.

Special thanks was given to Mrs. Edward Lewis and Mrs. Louis Pepin for co-ordinating the potluck supper. They were aided by cafeteria supervisor, Mrs. Ada Delano, and parents, Mrs. Wayne Bailey, Mrs. Carl Nelson, Mrs. Arthur Hogan and Mrs. Edward Horne.

Mr. John R. Moynihan, principal, introduced the teachers and staff members at Center and Old Hammondtown Schools.

Mr. Robert Silveira, acting president, presided over the business meeting until elections were held and then turned the meeting over to the new president, Mrs. Jimmie Price. The other outgoing officers were Mrs. Domingo Sylvia, corresponding secretary; Mr. George Cathcart, treasurer; Mrs. Louis Pepin, membership chairman; Mrs. Charles Dunn, ways and means chairman; Mrs. Edward Lewis, hospitality chairman. Mr. Paul Mullaney had been elected president last fall but left the Mattapoisett area, and Vice-President Robert Silveira took over the presidential duties this past January.

The new officers are Mrs. Jimmie Price, president; Mr. Edward Lewis, vice-president; Mrs. David Haley, corresponding secretary; Mr. Arthur Hogan, treasurer; Mr. Dean Randall, membership chairman; Mrs. Wayne Bailey, hospitality chairman; Mrs. Louis Perry, ways and means chairman; and Mrs. Donald Oliver and Mrs. Thomas Mulvihill, members of the executive board.

It was voted to have two business meetings a year, the first being the one in session and the other to be held near the end of the school year. Also, the members voted to hold PTC once every two months, the next meeting to be held December 8th. At each meeting the names of five couples will be drawn. These couples, with the help of hospitality chairman, Mrs. Wayne Bailey, will plan the program for the next meeting. The couples in charge of the December meeting are Mr. and Mrs. Victor Demski, Mr. and Mrs. Alan Swan, Mr. and Mrs. Manuel Luiz, Mrs. Pauline Collins, and Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Mulvihill. Any parent or teacher having a suggestion for the December meeting is asked to contact one of these people.

Mr. Moynihan suggested that the PTC publish a bulletin to keep the parents and teachers informed of the activities of the club. Mrs. Bradford Hathaway is in charge of the art work for the bulletin; Mrs. Donald Oliver, stenciling; and Mr. Wayne Bailey will announce the meetings on Radio Station WBSM. Members in charge of preparing news for the bulletin are Mr. Dean

OLD ROCHESTER
DARTMOUTH TIE

Old Rochester Bulldogs and Dartmouth Indians fought to a 6-6 tie Saturday at the Old Rochester field.

Dartmouth received the ball as the game opened and unable to move, punted on 4th. Domingo Pina received the kick on his own 22 and returned it all the way for the Bulldog's only score of the afternoon. Pina, an accurate placekicker, hurt his leg on his long run, and was unable to boot the extra point.

The 2-point conversion failed. Dartmouth scored early in the third period from the 3-yard line but was unable to convert
